The Book Fair is coming...

We are 100% Irish owned

At the Tara Book Fair we make reading exciting. Choose from picture books, early readers, Irish language, non-fiction and bargain books from €2.

With a choice of over 200 quality titles on display there is something to suit all tastes, interests and abilities.

Children will be allowed time to attend the fair, browse and buy. Parents are welcome and encouraged to attend the fair.

The school benefits greatly from your contribution, they receive a generous percentage in free books for the school library.

Free books for your school - Your school gets 1 free book for every 2 books you buy!

We hope you will be able to attend. If not you may like to order from the catalogue or encourage your child to choose his/her own book.

Author profile

Jackie Burke

Jackie grew up with her sister and three brothers in south county Dublin. She has dreamed of becoming a writer since she was a little girl but other things (like work, sport and baking cakes) kept getting in the way. So she sat down one day and started writing Grindlewood, and she hasn't stopped writing since.

Enter Grindlewood past and present, its magic and mysteries, secrets and spells and no good story misses out on the fight for good versus evil.

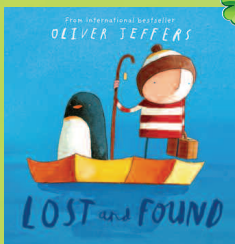

Log on to www.grindlewood.com to find out more about Grindlewood and its occupants.

From Junior infants

Develop and nurture a love of reading with your child from an early age by reading to them.

- Reading aloud to your child gives them the most important gift of all – your time.
- Parents play an important role in the learning process.
- Helps children develop literacy, numeracy and social skills.
- When your child starts to read on their own - encourage, praise and listen.

From third class

- Encourage them to choose their own books.
- Check out award winning books, especially the Irish CBI Awards.
- Reading increases vocabulary and comprehension.
- Build reading stamina – the more books children read the easier they will find the transition to secondary school.
